School Board

BERT POUNCEY, JR., has served as president of the Hughes School Board for five of the eleven years that he has been a member. At present he is chairman of the board of the Planters National Bank, member of Hughes Rotary Club, and is National Commodore of the United States Coast Guard. He is a large land owner and operates a commercial tow boat.

CHARLES ADAMS, secretary, has been a member of the school board for the past five years. He is now a member of the Arkansas Highway Commission, member of the city council, the Hughes Rotary Club, and is very active in Presbyterian church work.

C. A. NICKLE has been a member of the board for four years. He is at the present time, president of the Rotary Club. He is a land owner and quite active in community affairs.

SIMON CAPPS has been a member of the board for thirteen years. He has extensive farming and business interests and has served for several years on the County Board of Education.

E. H. CLARKE, Seyppel, is at present serving as president of the Crittenden County Farm Bureau. He is active in school, church, and community affairs.

Big buddie-buddie!

What bright faces you have, grandmas!

Oh! What a beautiful day!

So lonesome!

Geraldine is always in the picture somehow—

Careful, Red, new brains don't grow on trees.

Mother's little helper.

You left a speck of dust, Tommy.

The inseparables!

Which one would you choose?

Where's the other boy?

Oh! Don't mess up my hair!

What? No smile Flossie?

You poor suckers!

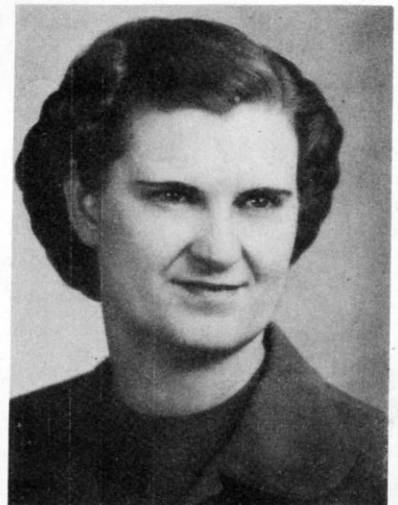

Administration

Mr. Roy M. Nelson has been superintendent of the Hughes High School for fifteen years. His untiring services have helped to make our school one of the most outstanding in the state.

The Staff of THE BLUE DEVIL:

I enjoyed seeing the photographs of the five beauties of Hughes High School and my selection for your 1952 Queen is Maureen Reisman.

It was a real pleasure to act as your judge this year. Thanks for inviting me to do so.

Best wishes.

Sincerely,

jon whitcomb
