OF 1959-60

DEDICATION

To a "Boating" enthusiast who we feel has a genuine affection for us and our school, Mr. Bert C. Pouncey, Jr., we dedicate this 1960 BLUE DEVIL.

There are few people who have performed as many thankless tasks as you have. Serving first on a school board, then becoming its presiding officer, and last year working with us as our superintendent, are all worthwhile, yet difficult jobs.

This is only a small way in which we can convey our feelings, our appreciation, and our gratitude to you for your interest in the youth of our community.

May this dedication be a tangible expression of our thanks.

HUGHES PUBLIC SCHOOLS

ROY L. STOBBAUGH, Supt.

HUGHES, ARKANSAS

TO THE STUDENTS OF HUGHES SCHOOL:

May I congratulate the staff for the great work it has done in bringing to you this 1959-60 edition of your yearbook. This book is a concrete example of democratic planning and achievement in your school life. It shows the ability and willingness of our students to perform important and difficult tasks well.

In this publication you have a pictorial record of activities and of school life during this year. I sincerely hope that in future days you will enjoy reliving some of the pleasant experiences reflected on the pages of this yearbook.

R. L. Stobaugh

In English was Mrs. Vance Beasley

Helping with farm and shop interests was Mr. C. E. Bull

THE FACULTY OF HUGHES
JUNIOR-SENIOR HIGH SCHOOL

Guiding our minds to numbers and problems was Mr. Elvis Dellar

Interested in athletics and social studies was Mr. Alvin Maples

Training us for the business world was Mrs. Alvin Maples

And helping us appreciate life in a democracy was Mr. Bill McCoy who taught social studies

Miss Julia McKemie counseled with us on many occasions

Mr. Don Meador caused us to think of higher math and coached us in our athletic activities

Mrs. Melvin Raborn brought a love for homemaking which was near to every girl's heart

Mr. Melvin Raborn spurred us on in scientific undertakings

Miss Annie Ruth Sample increased our knowledge of grammar and tried to help us love literature.

Mr. O. E. Worrell met our need for knowledge in many areas and opened a wide field for us in chemistry

RENDERING SPECIAL SERVICES TO ALL OF US WERE

Mr. John Archer

Mr. John Archer who taught public school and junior high chorus

Mrs. Roy Nelson who served us lunch each day

Mrs. Bob Olive who worked in the office

Mr. Ronald Thielman who was our band director

And Mrs. O. E. Worrell who fed our literary interests through the library and its books.

Dear Miss McKeele:

As per your request, I have made the following selections from among the photographs you sent me.

Most Beautiful Girl Sherry Anderson
Most Handsome Boy Leo Robert Tomney

I hope you won't mind my suggesting that you make the following awards also:

1st Runner Up Linda Worley
1st Runner Up Bobby Davis

This has been a most pleasant though difficult task. All of the young people are so remarkable.

Please congratulate the winners and extend my warmest personal regards to all of these fine looking young people.

With best wishes to you, the faculty, and student body of Hughes Public Schools,

Cordially,

P.S. I am enclosing the photographs of girls you requested.

The Homecoming festivities started with a parade through town.

"Fork 'Em Devils" was the theme of the blue and white float on which the queen, her maids, and mascots rode.

The crowd gathered in town for the pep meeting to cheer the Hughes Blue Devils on to victory over the Marvell Mustangs.

Sherry Faye accepts the flowers from Co-captain Bobby Joe Stimpson while waiting to crown her is Co-captain James Allison.

Approaching the center of the field is Queen Sherry Faye as she marches under the raised batons of majorettes. Little Debbie Beene carries the game ball which will be presented to the captains.

Senior maid, Linda Beene, is escorted by Glen Sherman and Jerrold Stackhouse.

Bobby Bull and Ronnie McDermott escort senior maid, Betty Gadberry.

With junior maid Mary Ann Wise are Gene Lehr and Wilson Pittman.

Jack Burch and Bobby Downs escort another junior maid, Jobelle Beasley.

The sophomore maid, Nancy Pittman, is accompanied by Buddy Shidler and Richard Creekmore.

Freshman maid, Sue Bonds, is accompanied by Bobby Pouncey and David Clark.
