Administration

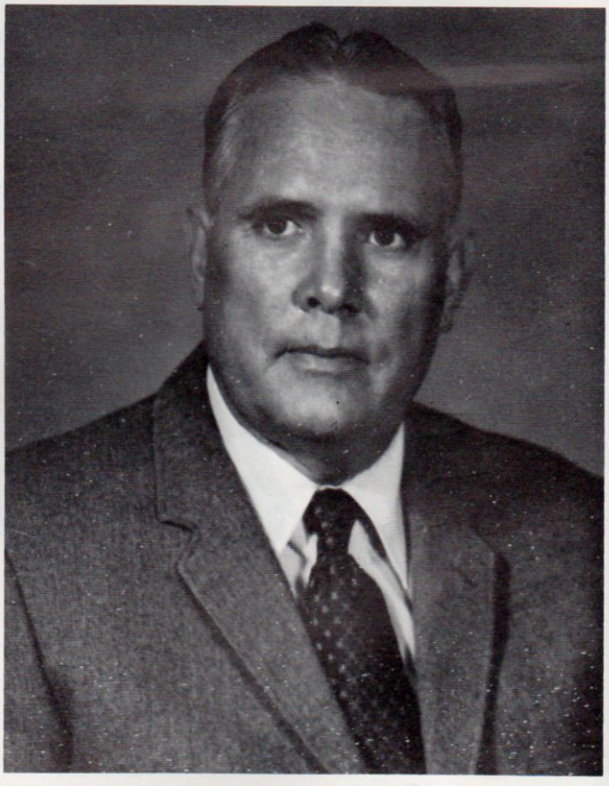

Administration

A few notes on a year in the life of a superintendent are recorded here. Keeping a student body aware of the merits of good sportsmanship is a goal. Three years of the last four have seen HHS a winner . . . Kindergarten students are "graduated" and ready to go into the first grade . . . A long time employee is given appropriate thanks for a job well done . . . These and countless other activities make demands upon his time, and in only a small way is appreciation shown by the faculty. A Christmas gift from the faculty marks the favorite season of the year for students and faculty as they begin a holiday.

Roy L. Stobaugh
Superintendent of Schools

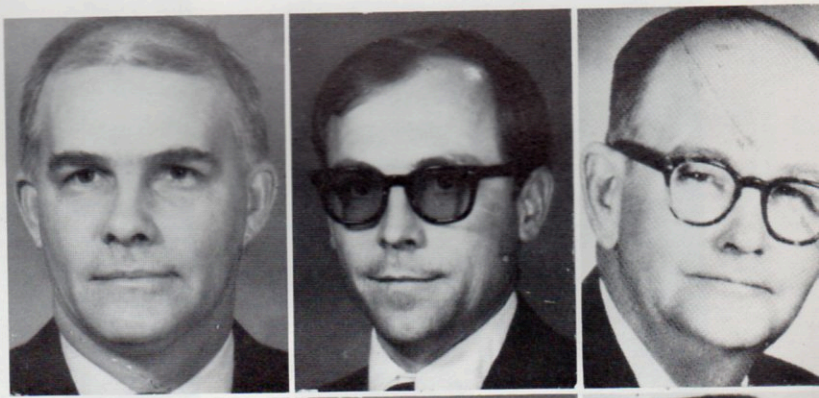

Hughes School Board

Meetings of the Hughes School Board are held on the second Tuesday of each month during the school year. They generally are held in the administrative offices of the Hughes School. The eight member board is subject to election by the people of the Hughes School District.

I forgot . . . Bring me . . .

A bulletin board may help my grade.

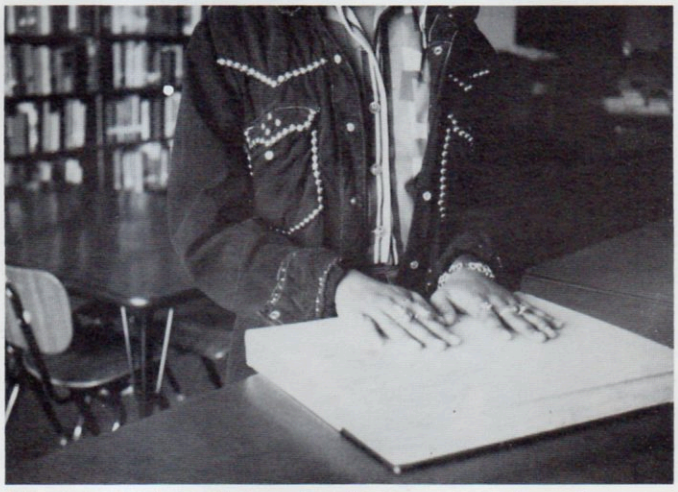

A principal's conference time.

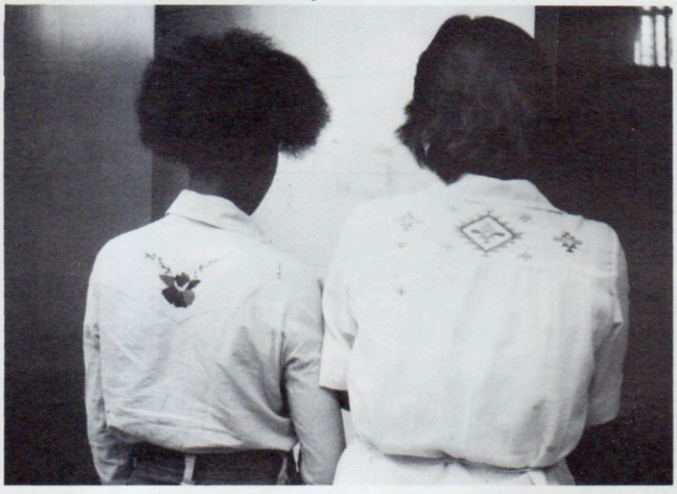

Lunch tickets were a daily problem.

There were some signs of the times - signs of 1977 - which faced teachers each day.

We were back to rings on her fingers . . . from the nursery rhyme of pre-school days.

Attractive embroidery marked many shirts.

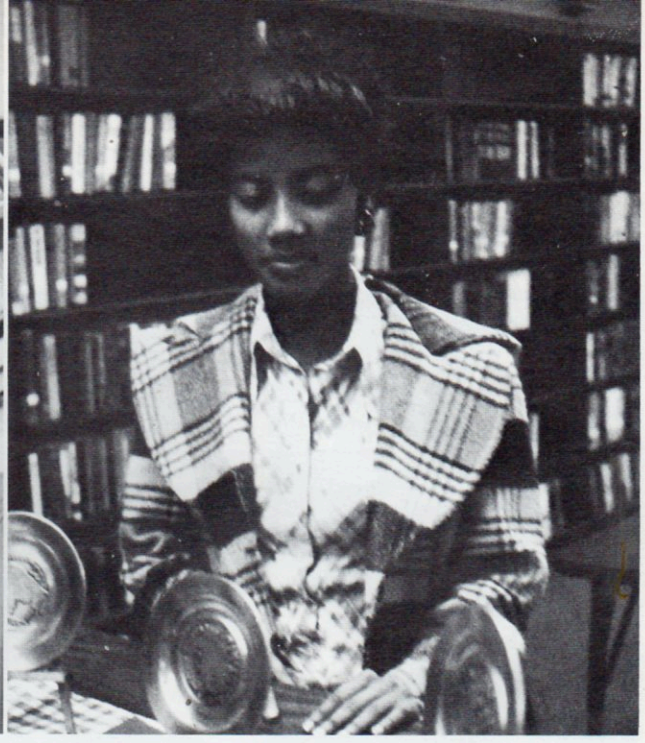

To be a wearer of the "H" marked true spirit.

Shoe styles were varied and the one with mud indicates that the winter of 1976-77 was one of frequent rains and snow.

Coach Barton has to know about homework in a lot of subjects.

A library display offers some information.

Mother and son have to learn together.

Kathleen suffers through "Make-Up" work.

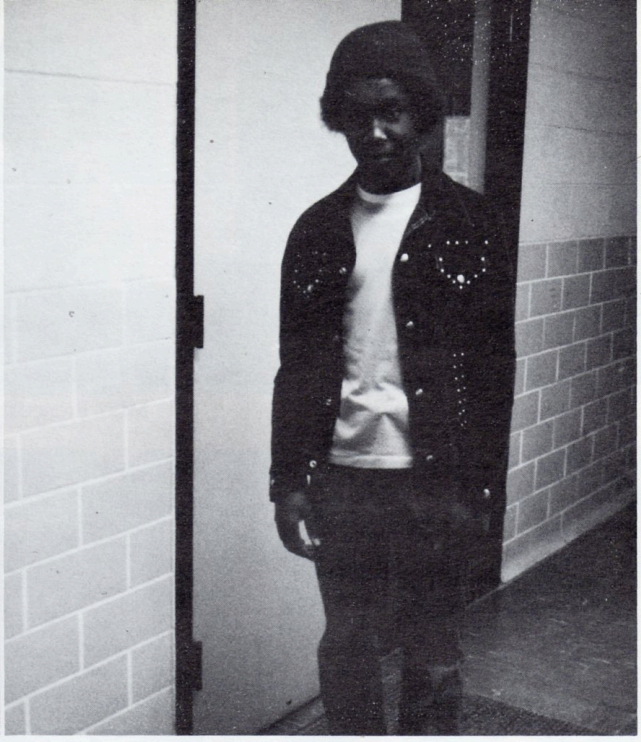

Mr. Doty depends upon Ed to follow directions about errands to be run.

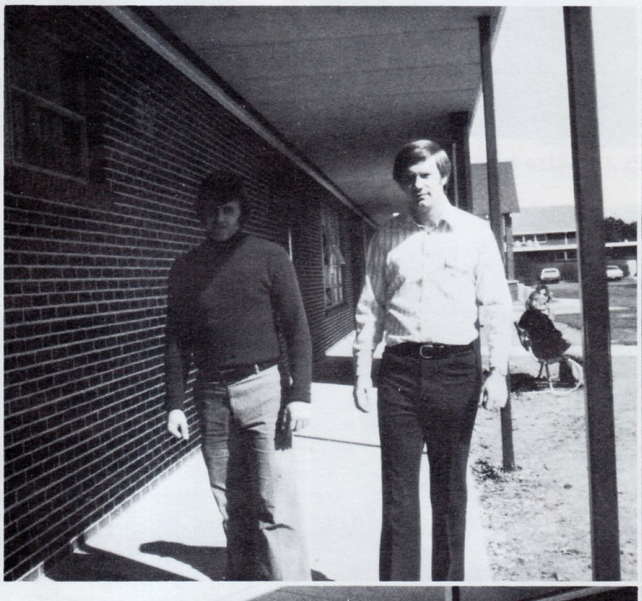

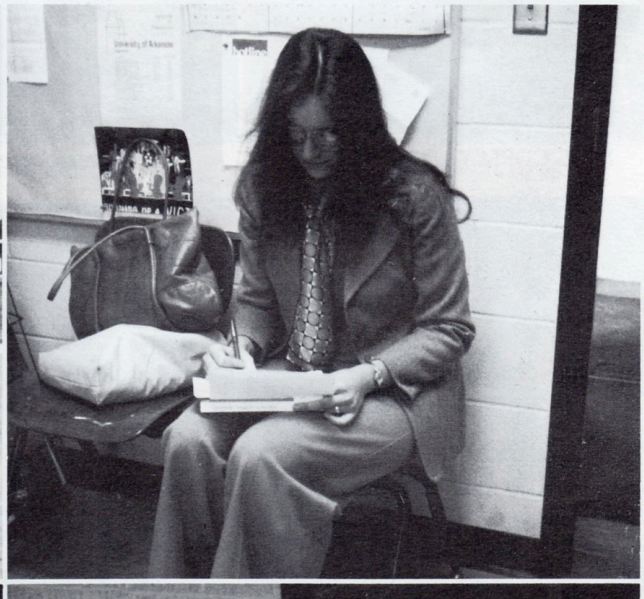

A long-time employee, Mrs. Lettie Scott, gets a "thank you."

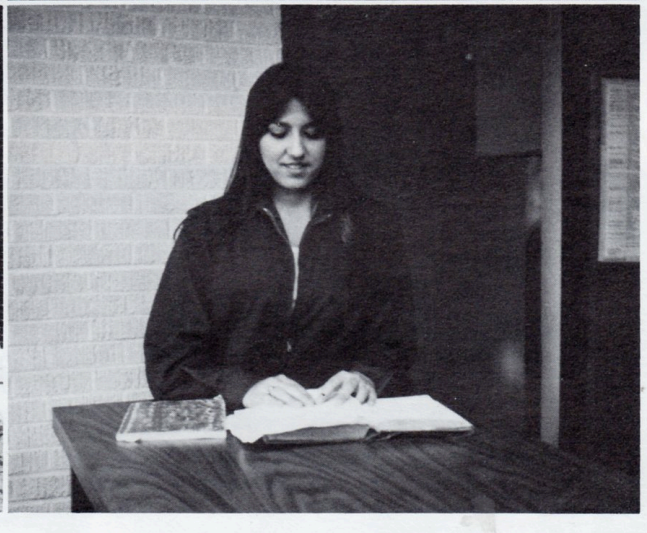

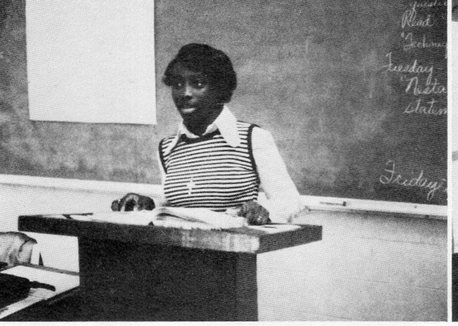

These were all going home at the end of the day except Mary and she had work to make up.

Recitation day in English II.

Mrs. Prescott gets a "Good-Bye."

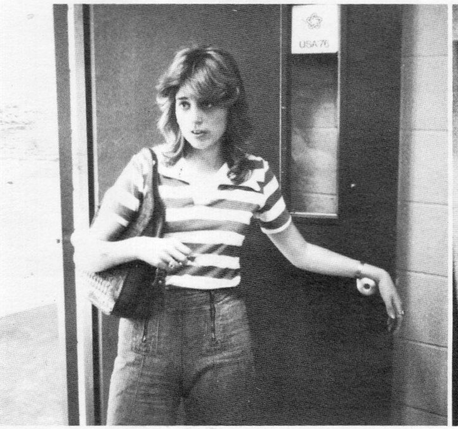

Local ACE Officers.

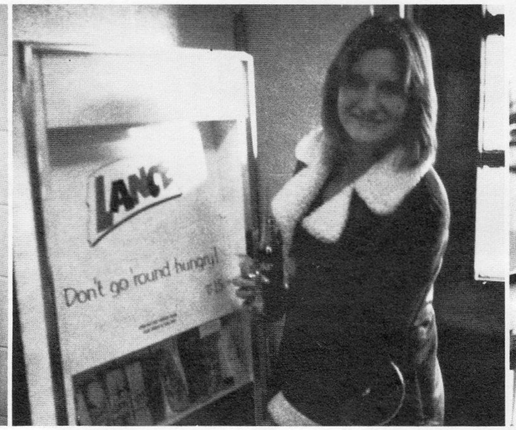

Learning a skill that is useful.

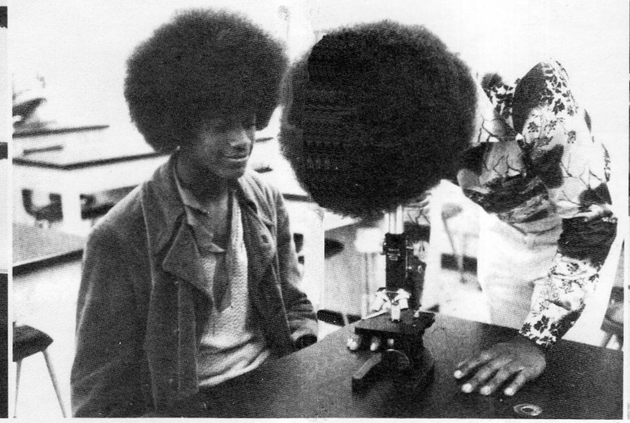

Teachers visit art exhibits.

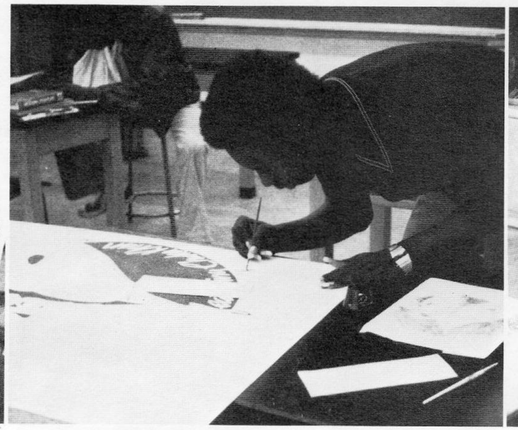

MISS CORLEY: "It IS 3:45."

Teresa takes an extra portion.

Advanced Biology - Challenge

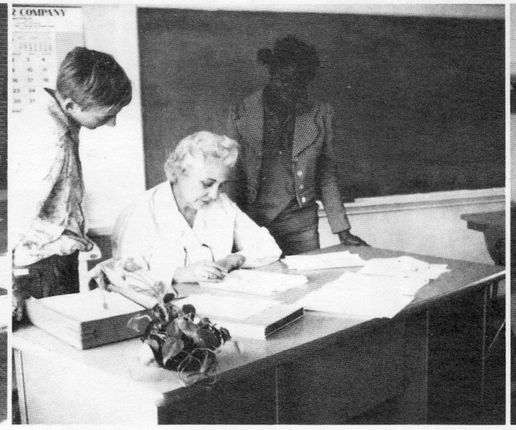

Thomas tries his artistic ability.

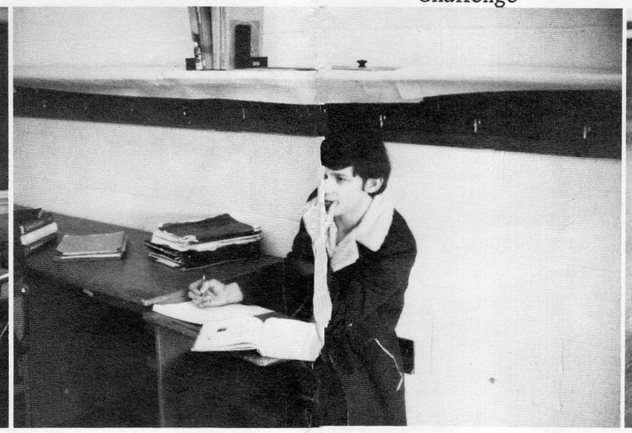

Saw a straight line.

Eloise explains "the ropes."

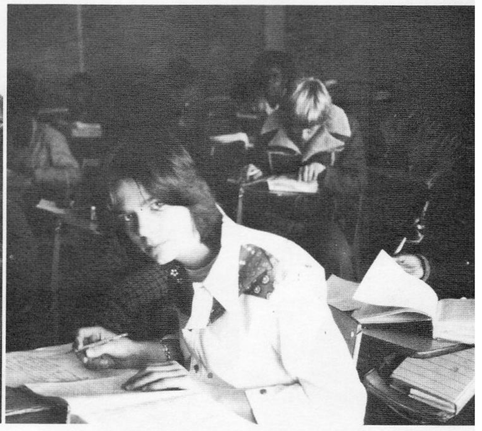

Grateful for a substitute.

That Pensive Look

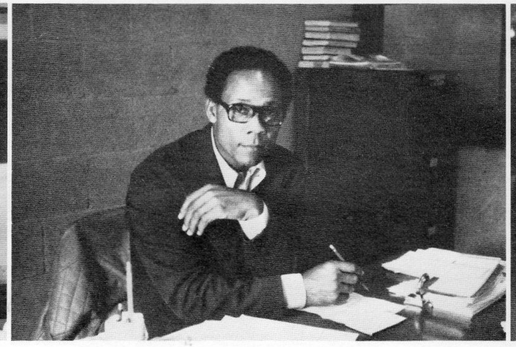

Learning from the card catalog.

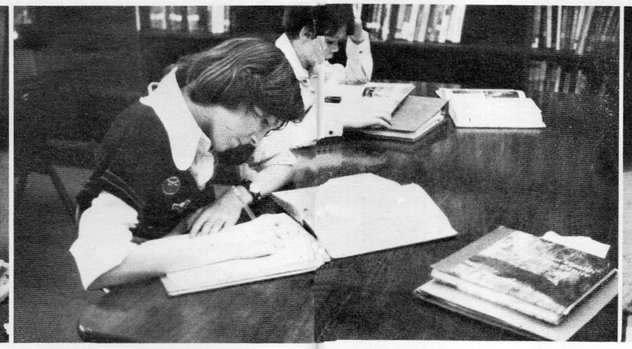

The Classroom scene

First day in the resource room.

Coach Robins thinks it over.

Library work was time-consuming.

A reminder of coming events.

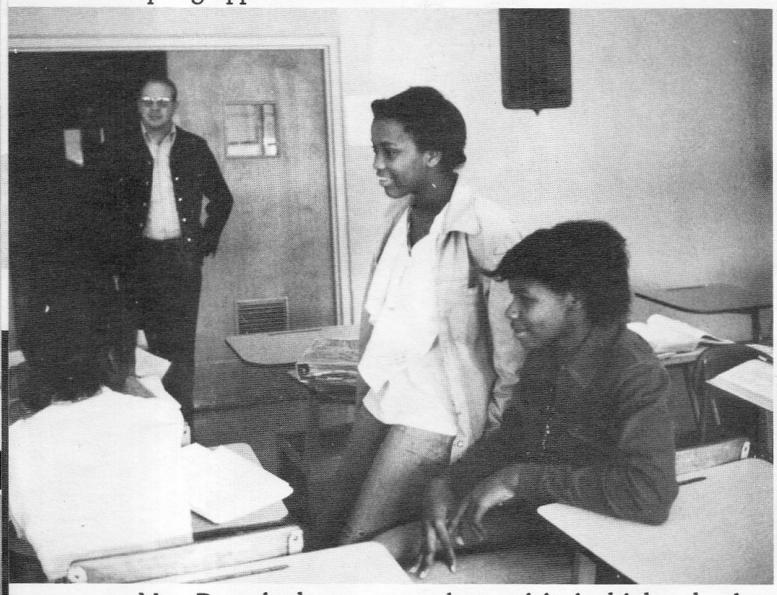

Satisfying a sweet tooth.

Debbie and Jeanette enjoy the noon-time sunshine as spring approaches.

Miss McKemie studies about vocational rehab program for seniors.

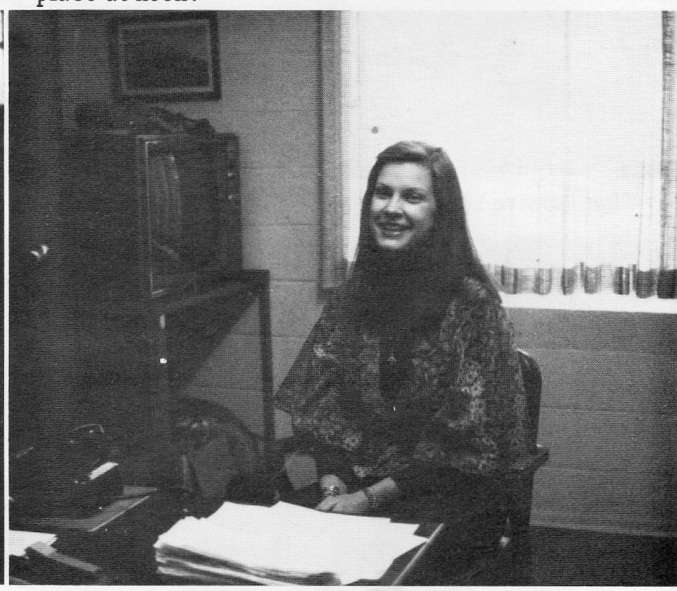

Mr. Doty looks on as students visit in high school study hall.

An after-lunch conference of friends frequently took place at noon.

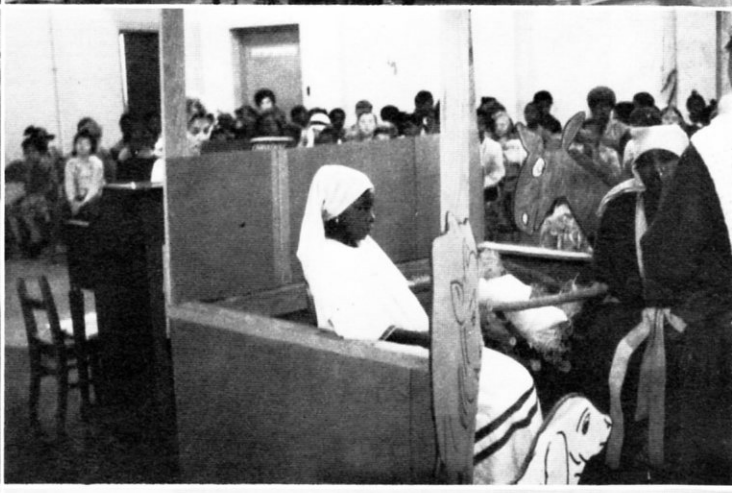

Latham and Stanley do some thinking.

Miss Beth Smithers, a new teacher, visits in Mr. Doty's office on her conference period.

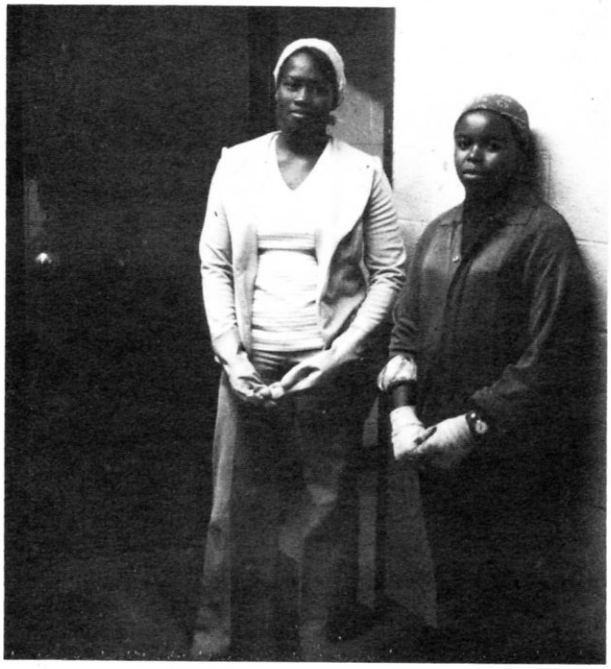

These groups will soon move on to join high school activity.

These Staff Members can give a lot of notes for our notebook as they see a lot that goes on at HHS and sometimes they don't like all they see.

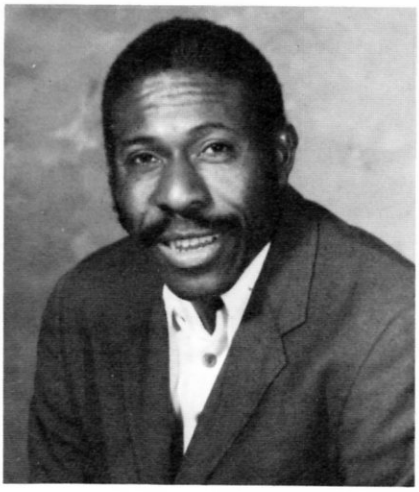

Mrs. Bell and Mrs. Harrison see too much mud in the halls on wet and rainy days.

You can see the evidences of their work from day to day as you go into clean rooms and see highly polished floors.

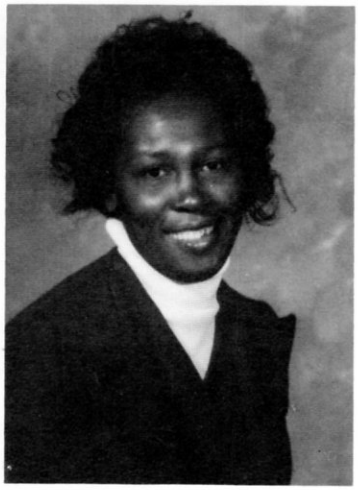

It's a slap at these friends when you litter the floor.

Mrs. Hill - emphasis on clean library.

Mr. Miller - the supervisor of a campus from 7 - 12 and from can till can't. Give him a hand.

Mrs. Jackson, a friend and an aide for Mrs. Cook and Miss Tate.

Miss Fowler, who listened and looked and helped out in the kindergarten as well as the resource room.

QUEEN FAIRY - A Senior and a Cheerleader at HHS

Despite all the hoping and wishing Homecoming Day 1976 remained rainy and wet and generally unpleasant for avid Blue Devil fans. However Queen Fairy was resplendent in her regal attire and even though this was one of the few times that homecoming had to be moved inside the gym it was still an unforgettable experience for the royal court and their escorts.

Sonny Hayes is escort for Queen Fairy at the 1976 homecoming assembly. He gives her the traditional bouquet of white mums with blue H's and blue ribbon. Then he puts the crown which he is holding on her head declaring her the queen. In exchange he gets the game football and a kiss.

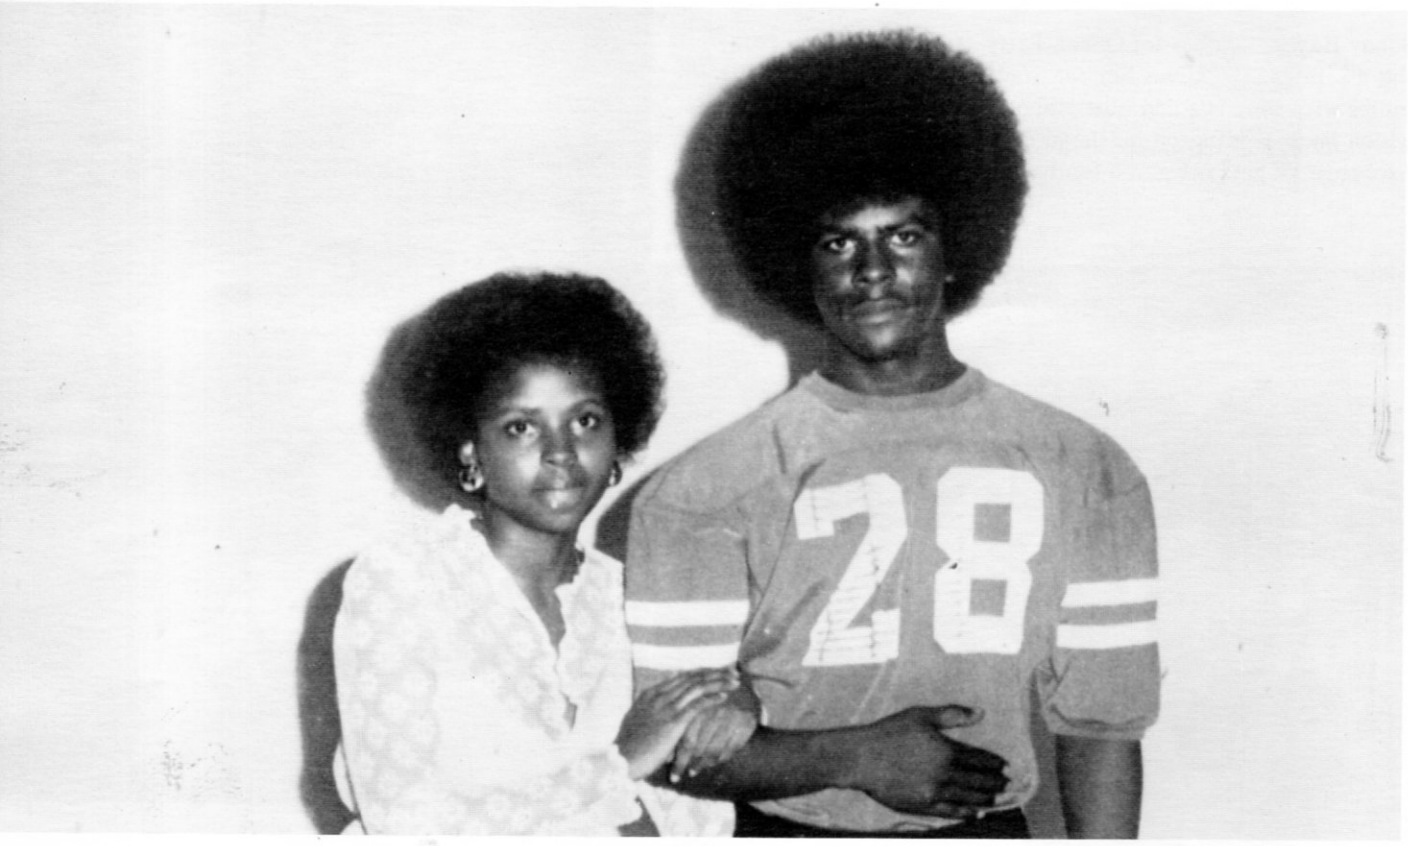

The happy moment arrives when she and escort Hayes reach the center of the gym.

Vennes Young and Ed Horton

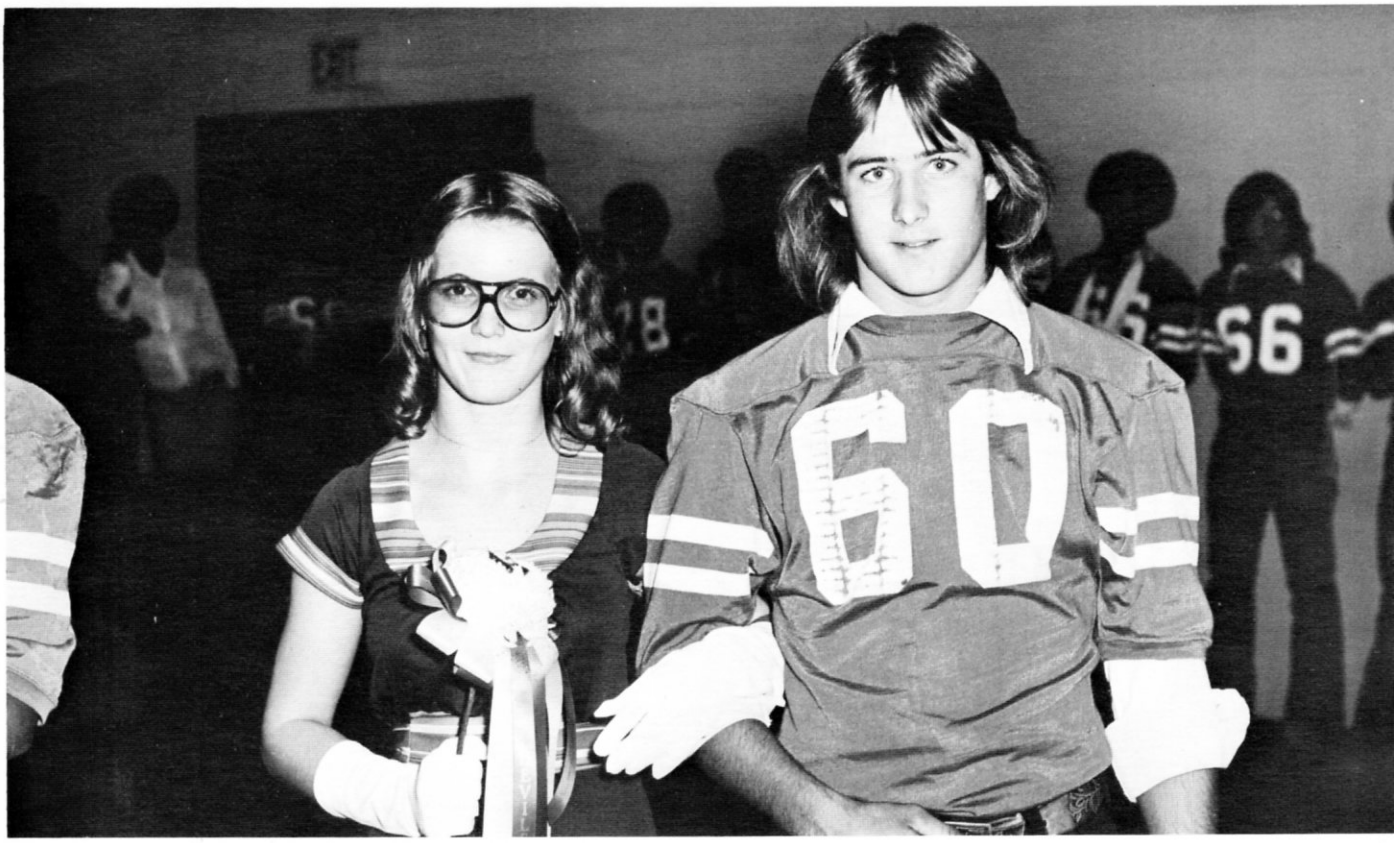

Vennes wore a dress of light green with a jacket and a round neckline. She is a member of Beta Club, Mu Alpha Theta, Spanish Club and Spanish Honor Society. She is president of the Spanish Club and secretary of the Beta Clubs. She will graduate with 24 units.

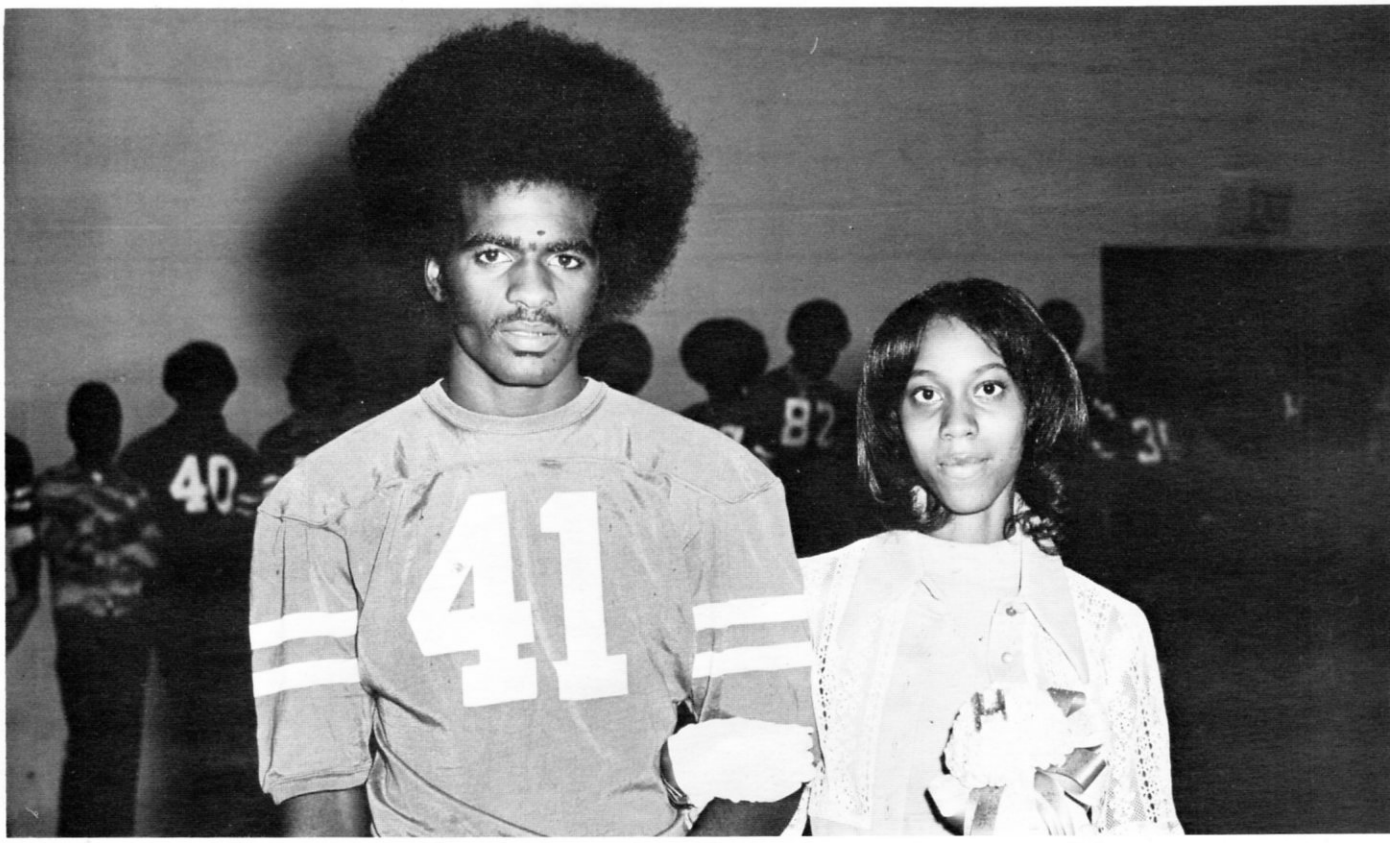

Rusty McFalls and Stacy Evans

Stacy wore a pink dress with bouquets of flowers of yellow, turquoise, white and blue outlined in brown. The dress had a square neckline and loose flowing sleeves. Stacy is a member of the Library Club.

Pam Gardner and Gary Latham

Pam wore a dress of navy blue with a collar accented with multi-colored stripes. Pam is president of the junior class and treasurer of the student council. She and Sharon represented the junior class.

Sharon Willis and Kenneth Harrison

Sharon's dress was blue with a white jacket and short sleeves. The jacket was trimmed in blue to accent the color of the dress. Sharon is a Baptist and enjoys listening to good music.

Patricia Harrison and Monroe Woodard

Patricia represented the sophomore class. She is a member of FHA and for this occasion she wore a wine dress with a round neckline. It had short sleeves and a cape.

Lesha Caligaris and Johnny Chamness

Lesha served as president of FHA and represented her club in student council. She wore a pink gown with a halter top and straps. The dress had a gathered waistline.

Michael Small, Eloise Coleman and Kyle Allen Reece were the flag bearers and started the parade to the ruffle of drums.

"I love a parade as down the street
Comes the roll of drum,
Steady marching feet
Colors born aloft,
proudly carried on high
Float out to the breeze against the blue of the sky.

"Here comes a parade
Marching down the street.
The people come from far and near
The sights to see, the band to hear
An eager crowd has come to cheer . . .
Here comes a parade . . .

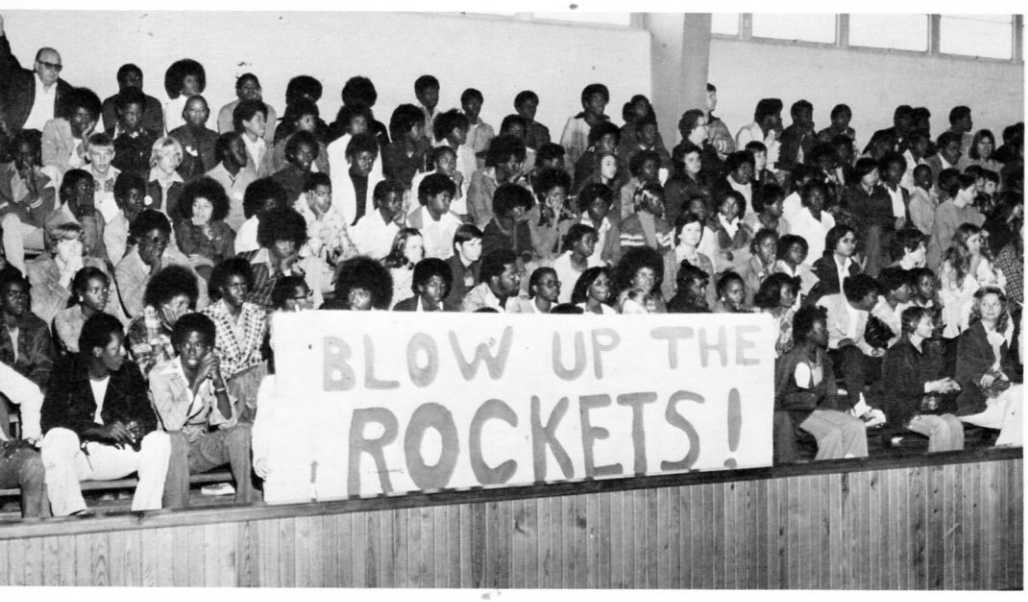

What more appropriate way to start a parade than to call attention to the flags which fly at the top of the flag poles - the American flag, symbol of a great country; the Arkansas flag which proudly denotes the "Land of Opportunity" and the Blue Devil flag for own school.

The crowd stood at attention for the singing of the Alma Mater and for the passing of flags. It was a full house for this event - the 1976 Homecoming activity.

A few had to make minor repairs in the banner which they carried in the parade. Here Julia Hinze and Laura Pouncey work on the student council banner.

One of the main topics of thought at the assembly was defeat of the Turrell Rockets. This sign best shows the feelings of the day.

Here Gail Smith holds the banner of the junior high library club as they express their feelings about the upcoming football game.

And the Industrial Arts Club gets in the act as Eddie Fong and Sambo Oswalt hold their banner.

Dorothy Robinson, Evelyn Wilkins, and Clara Oliver carry a part of the FHA banner which came in parts. They are expressing their feelings for the team.

The Future Homemakers turned the tide and then hung the Rockets out to dry. Some interested Blue Devil onlookers hope that this is the way it will be for the Turrell-Hughes game.

In keeping with the Halloween season the Spanish Club used a slogan that spoke of this season in its Victory Message. Nita Boles and Nan Smith are helping to "Trick the Rockets."

Boosters of the Blue Devil team from the Future Business Leaders Club are Elroy Reed, Wilbert Scales, Laura Pouncey and Jessie Small are expressing the student council slogan for the day, "Like a Broken Drum, our Spirit's Hard to Beat."

The Art Club says, "Our Devils are Dy-No-Mite" as club president Thomas Small, and club member Janet Cordell carry the banner in the parade.

Isn't this just like a bunch of prospective teachers? "Teach them who's boss" say the members of the Future Teachers of America. The sign is being carried by Mary Ann Rice, and Dianne Glover.

Here the Student body responds to the cheerleaders and the Industrial Arts Club says "Blast the Rockets into Orbit." Club members help to keep the crowd's attention focused on their slogan. See that enthusiastic Spanish Club group on the front row.

Shirley Burks, Vanessa Heavener, Sheila Heavener, Pam Batts, Tommie Young, and Vertis Davis - JUNIOR HIGH CHEERLEADERS - were a vital part of the pep meeting. Here they lead the junior high portion of the assembly in a rousing cheer.

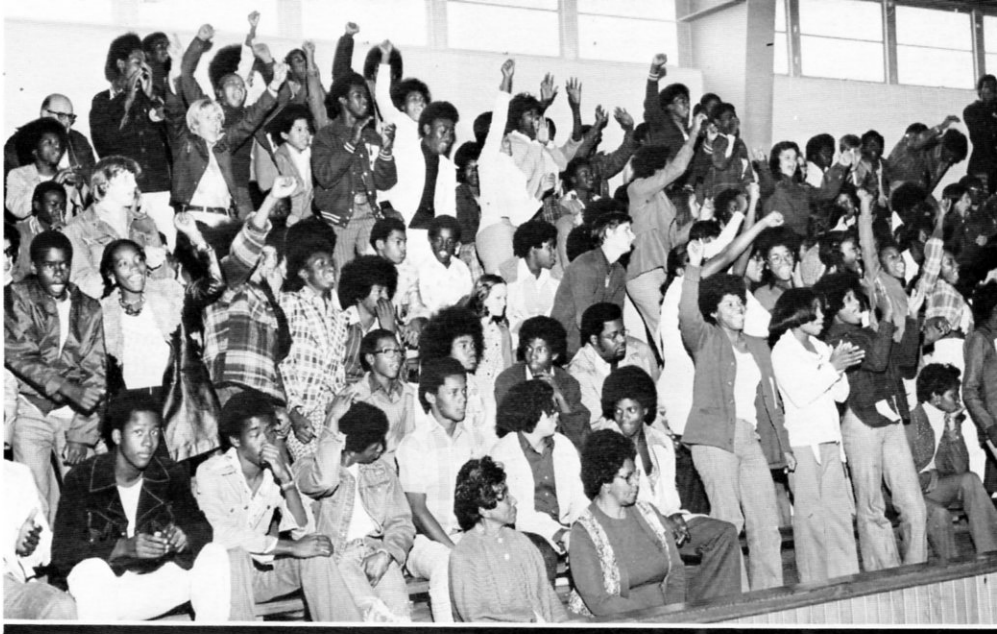

A pom-pom routine by the cheerleaders - Sandra Dotson, Margaret Miller, Eloise Coleman, Mary Beth Johnson, and Cathy Clayton was one of the highlights of the rally.

Here the cheerleaders help with spirit building in the classes as they pull chains with the names of each member of the sophomore, junior, and senior classes. Prizes were awarded where the chain--broke and the class had the strongest chain.

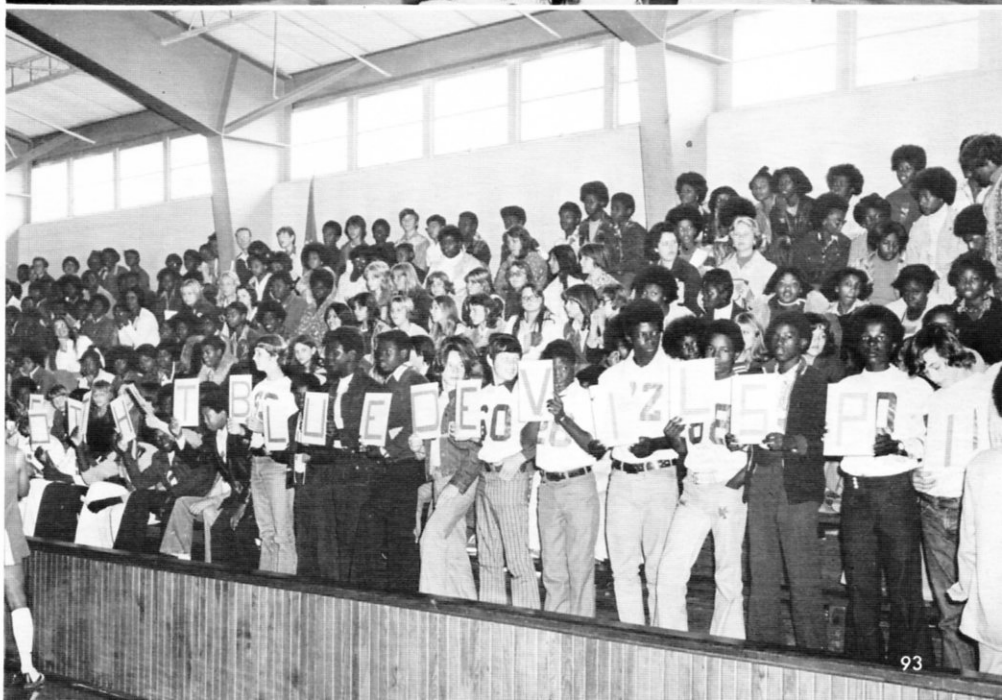

V-I-C-T-O-R-Y is the classes cry, but some did not respond to the call for class support. Here at the end of the yell a few ardent fans give their voices in VICTORY.

Bettie Bonds, Kenneth McCullough, Mary Ann Miller, and Veronica Bartz portray the Rocket and the Devils as they represent the Spanish Club in a skit.

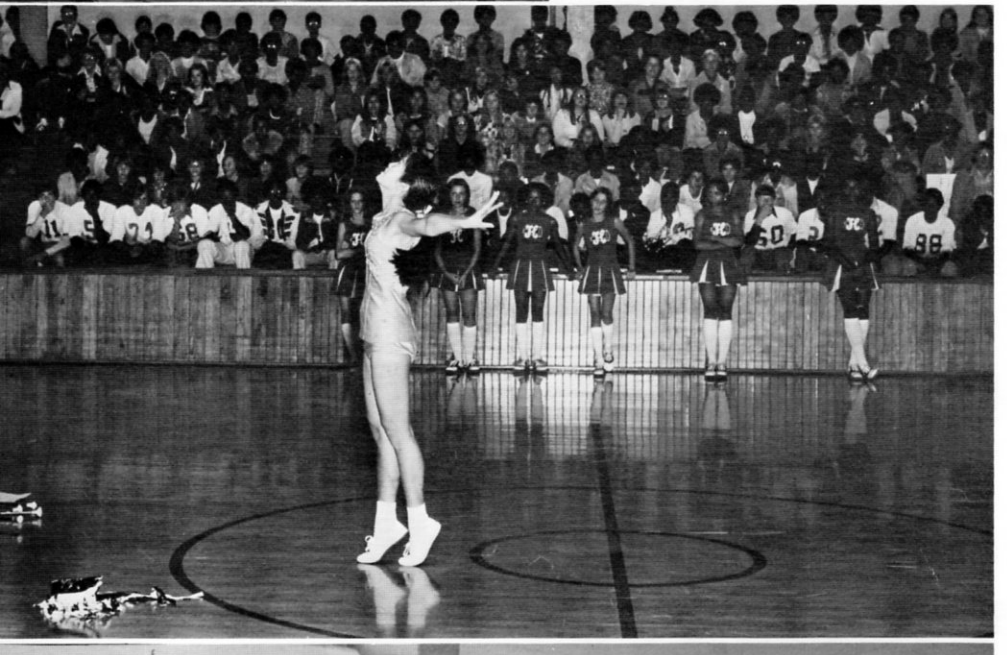

Future Blue Devil team members are now on the junior high Imp team and their motto for the day was "We've all got that Blue Devil Spirit." They are having a little difficulty here in getting their spelling in order.

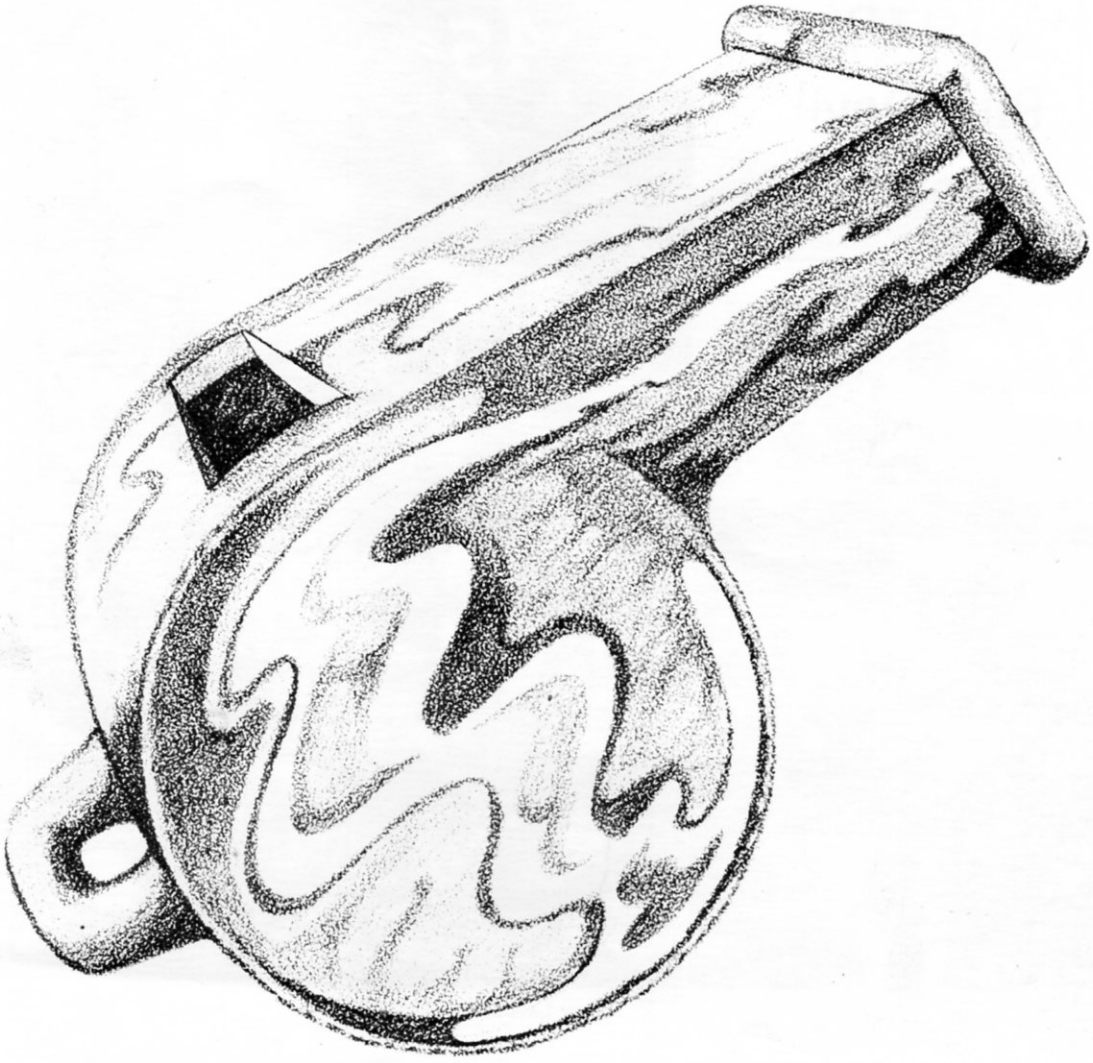

A special at the homecoming rally was a baton twirling number by Denise Bartoush, a junior at HHS.

Teresa Fong, a senior, provided a baton presentation about the mid-point of the pep rally. She used her baton, an attractive circle in pink, and flags, thus adding variety to the event.

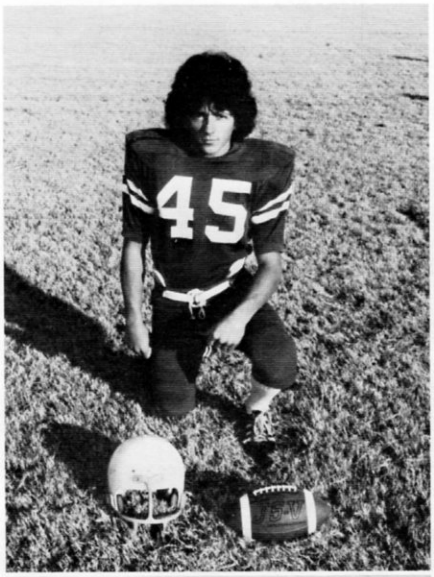

The band provided spirit for the rally, they played for cheerleader routines, and helped make the activity more interesting for most of us. Here a few are pondering the situation as the band accompanies the cheerleader routine.

Stacey Van Sickle
Kindergarten

These kindergarten students were fixed up for "graduation" into the first grade. They went right on to become model first graders.

Eating was one of the "fun times" at school. It was also a good learning time as both good manners and nutrition were stressed.
